Dear Bill,

I hope everything is going well and you have been enjoying some of the great fall weather that we've been having lately.

We have seen the subpoenas for Will Campbell's personal financial information and for that of his family members. We intend to move to quash these subpoenas on the basis that the information sought is unnecessary in light of the receiver's work, not relevant, and harassing. I know that we've gone back and forth in a few letters about this and there likely isn't much else to be said at this point, but before we filed, I wanted to reach out. If there is anything more to discuss on these subpoenas and the information sought in terms of whether it is appropriate, please let us know and we would be glad to get on a call.

Kindest regards,
